About the Book

From Geoff Herbach, the award-winning young adult author, comes a tale that will resonate with fat kids, nerds, dorks, gamers, geeks and teen outcasts of all kinds—an authentically funny story for anyone who has suffered from teasing and bullying at the hands of the high school social hierarchy. And decided to do something about it.

Join a cast of quirky misfits as fat boy Gabe, aka Chunk, goes up against the high school cheerleading team in a battle over control of the school's soda machine. A marching band geek who drowns his dysfunctional family woes in a voracious soda habit, Gabe relishes his role as class clown, fending off harassment from students and teachers with his own brand of irreverent, self-deprecating humor. But when the cheerleading team takes over the funds previously collected to finance the marching band, Gabe will not stand for it. Something must be done.

It's geeks versus jocks in an epic battle of the beverages!

Overview

After welcoming attendees, brief introductions will be made. The author will then read a passage of his choosing from the book. This will be followed by a few questions on the writing process, as well as questions about the book. The discussion will conclude with questions about future books and activities.

After the event, the author will be available to sign books and posters. Drawings for door prizes will also be held.

Questions About the Writing Process

1. How long did it take you to write the book and then how much longer did it take to get published?
2. What is your preferred routine for writing?
   - Do you sit down at a desk to write for a period of time or do you wait until the mood strikes you?
   - Do you have a designated area for writing?
   - Do you write in longhand or on a computer or laptop?
   - What research do you usually conduct either before or during the writing process?
3. What inspired you to write young adult fiction?
   - What author or authors serve as a source of inspiration for you?
4. What aspect of writing is the most challenging for you?

Please note the audience will be encouraged to ask follow-up questions, as well as any other questions they may have.
