

Perspectives on Forensic Research

Overcoming Obstacles to Scholarly Engagement	1
Edward A. Hinck
The Pitfalls, Perils, and Promise to Increasing Forensic Research	8
Daniel Cronn-Mills

Role of Director of Forensics

Retention, Retention, Retention: Keeping Our Colleagues in the Trenches	15
Joel Hefling
Finding Strength in Numbers:	18
A Collaborative Team Approach to Directing Forensic Programs Scott Jensen, Gina Jensen, and Thomas Serfass
The Peoria Recommendations:	24
Suggestions on Promotion, Tenure and Evaluation for Directors of Forensics Michael Dreher

Growth of Forensic Programs

Helping Programs Survive:	32
Utilizing the Concepts of Sustainability as Viable Means of Program Growth Brian Klosa
Constructing a Vision in a Small Group: A Narrative Analysis of a Forensics Team	36
Ryan Lauth
Maintaining and Enhancing Institutional Relevance:	40
Long-term Program Sustainability in an Era of Increased Intra-Institutional Competition for Resources Brendan Kelly

Systematic Look at Events

Gasp! Faint! Cry! Making Dramatic Interpretation a Book Optional Event or Not	42
Amber Kuipers
So Much Drama: In Support of a Shift from Dramatic Duo to Duo Interpretation	47
Michael Chauinard
The Day the Music Died:	53
Encouraging Prosodic and Emotional Analysis in the Oral Interpretation of Poetry Chad Kuyper
After Dinner Speaking: Problems, Causes, and Still No Solutions	60
Brandi Lawless
But Seriously,(can we stop saying that) ADS Should Be Taken More Seriously	67
Bobby Imbody

Ethics and Forensics

A Christian Ethic for Coaches	70
George LaMaster
The Emperor Has No Clothes: Solidifying Inconsistencies in Judges' Preference	79
Anthony Caviani & David Nadolski

Etic vs. Emic Values in the Culture of Forensics	82
Richard E. Paine
A “Pedagogy of Freedom” for Forensics: Moving from Convention to Theory	91
Terry West
Forensics as a Business: A Business Ethics Approach to Ethical Violations	96
Josh Randall

Forensic Tournaments

Coding Our Judges Off of Schools and Individuals: When is it Necessary?	98
Ken Young
The “Culture of Qualifying” Revisited (or) What is the “End” of Forensics?	104
Daniel A. West

Education/Competitive Duality

An Optimum Balance of Forensic Goals:	107
Balancing Competitive and Educational Ends Through Forensic Honoraries
Scott Jensen
Re-examining Competition and Education in Collegiate Forensics:	112
Establishing the Need for a Pedagogical Prerogative Perspective
Brendan Kelly & Randy Richardson
New Wine in Old Wineskins:	121
Questioning the Value of Research Questions in Rhetorical Criticism
Richard E. Paine
Performing for the Audience:	128
Putting the Public Back Into Individual Events Training
Scott Wells & Denee Janda
Uncertainty in Spontaneity: Toward an Epistemic Impromptu	131
Michael Stuedeman

Awareness of Forensics & Growth of the Activity

“No, It Has Nothing to Do With CSI”:	137
Using Public Relations to Promote New Forensic Programs
Christopher Fenner
How is that Helpful?: An Analysis of Ballot Helpfulness	141
Janis Crawford & Gregory E. Moser
Perceptions of Past Competitors: Presentation of the Data	145
Leah White, Larry Schnoor & Grant Anderson
The Liminal Graduate Student	154
Adam Gonzales-Weightman
Relating to Publics: An Additional Role of the Director of Forensics	157
Ryan Lauth

Debate & IE Relationships

Understanding the Hyphen: Addressing the Debate-IE Divide 162
 Brian Swafford

Facilitating Dual Service Programs: Imperatives for the Future of Forensics 168
 Terry West

Challenges and Opportunities for Forensic Programs: Offering Debate and Individual Events173
 Edward A. Hinck

Appendices

Resolutions 181

Participants 187

Conference Schedule 189

Conference Notes..... 190