

Sharp & Dewey Texts

BSS
C/M

- |     |                                  |      |  |
|-----|----------------------------------|------|--|
| 1.  | TITLE: YOUTH IN CAMPS(SCENE) | (8') | MUSIC(NARRATION)   |
| 2.  | m.s. kids around fire            | (6') | VOICE OF TIME: For 57 years, in ever increasing numbers,                                 |
| 3.  | c.u. eggs frying                 | (3') | the nation's youth has been "going away to camp".  |
| 4.  | l.s. girls                       | (5') | This year has seen more boys and girls at  |
| 5.  | l.s. kids going down gangplank   | (5') | camp than ever before  |
| 6.  | m.s. boys marching               | (5') | More than three million U. S. youngsters, have attended expensive private camps,         |
| 7.  | l.s. boys walking                | (7') | moderate-priced institutional camps,   |
| 8.  | l.s. boys around flagpole        | (4') | free camps for the city's underprivileged. All of them have enjoyed                      |
| 9.  | m.s. girls playing hockey        | (3') | may   |
| 10. | c.u. boys in swimming            | (3') | common experiences, common adventures.   |
| 11. | l.s. swimming float              | (6') |  |
| 12. | c.u. YAGAWANDER                  | (3') |  |
| 13. | M.s. boys in tents               | (7') | Largely unvarying has been is the routine of                                      |
| 14. | l.s. boys coming from tents      | (3') | activity upon which most U. S. camps   |
| 15. | l.s. boys setting-up exercises   | (6') | have patterned their organization since 1880. Chief object of camp life                  |
| 16. | c.u. instructor                  | (5') | each to its place - but that everywhere is body building by time-honored formula. |
| 17. | m.s. setting-up exercises        | (3') |  |
| 18. | l.s. boys eating                 | (4') | Most popular elements in the formula   |
| 19. | m.s. cook                        | (4') | of all camps are three stout meals a   |
| 20. | c.u. wheatcakes                  | (5') | day - - well tested pound producing fare for   |
| 21. | c.u. boy drinking milk           | (6') | the appetites of small fry.  |
| 22. | l.s. boys standing in line       | (6') | To sugar-coat the unpopular side of camp routine,  |
| 23. | m.s. boys being inspected        | (4') | in other prizes are promised for tidiness and cleanliness                         |

MOVEMENT AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF A NEW PRINCIPLE IN CAMP ORGANIZATION.

24. m.s. girls carrying canoes (5') Past masters at developing a healthy interest in outdoor sports
25. c.u. boy hitting tennis ball (2') are seasoned camp directors,
26. m.s. ball returning ball (4') Competition is <sup>often</sup> the keynote of the day's activities.
27. m.s. girl archers (3') Every age group has its teams, every team has its rival, for well directors
28. l.s. boys playing ring tennis (4') know that small athletes, working off
29. m. s. same as above (3')
30. m.s. boys boxing (7') steam inorganized games, are unconsciously building muscle, learning fellow-
31. l.s. boys playing baseball (8') ship, acquiring camp spirit.
32. m.s. boys being examined (5') As the season ends, coats of tan, <sup>too few</sup>
33. m.s. boy being weighed (5') added pounds and extra inches are the <sup>only</sup> measure of
34. c.u. chart (6') a camps success.
35. l.s. camp fire sing <sup>in L. R.</sup> (21')
36. TITLE: THIS YEAR A NEW AND REVOLUTIONARY EXPERIMENT IN CAMP ORGANIZATION EMERGES SUCCESSFULLY FROM ITS TRIAL STAGES, COMES TO PUBLIC ATTENTION (16')
37. m.s. Sharp at desk (5') VOICE OF TIME: Most active and enthusiastic proponent of the new
38. c.u. pictures (7') movement is a veteran camp director - - Dr. Lloyd Burgess Sharp.
39. c.u. Sharp (37') Sharp: You see, it's our belief that a summer camp should fire the child's imagination by opening up highroads to adventure. Above all they should develop his resourcefulness, not by regimented routine, but by treating him as the unique individual every child is.
40. l.s. kids in street (6') VOICE OF TIME: For his experiments Dr. Sharp selects underprivileged children
41. m.s. boy playing baseball (3') from Family Welfare Agencies - children from the backstreets of
42. c.u. boy shooting craps (5') New York's sweltering slums - East Harlem

IN CAMP - A NEW PRINCIPLE IN CAMP ORGANIZATION AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF A NEW PRINCIPLE IN CAMP ORGANIZATION

- |   |       |  |
|---|-------|--|
| 43. l.s. boys playing baseball          | (8')  | Hell's Kitchen and the lower West side - these he transplants  |
| 44. m.s. garbage can                    | (3')  |  |
| 45. l.s. boys walking down road         | (10') | to forest camps in New Jersey and Connecticut.   |
| 46. c.u. couple                         | (4')  | On arrival they are divided into small,  |
| 47. c.u. girls                          | (4')  | independent camp groups - one counselor and  |
| 48. c.u. covered wagon camp card        | (5')  | a leader to each six children.   |
| 49. l.s. boys hiking thru woods         | (7')  | Under this new plan each group sets out for the woods,   |
| 50. m.s. boys building shelters         | (5')  | some of them construct their own shelters where they are to live by  |
| 51. l.s. boys building wigwams          | (6')  | themselves for weeks to come.  |
| 52. l.s. girls and play house           | (4')  | Others undertake the arduous business of re-modelling to   |
| 53. c.u. girl sawing wood               | (4')  | their own taste the efforts of earlier campers.  |
| 54. c.u. girl looking out of window     | (2')  |  |
| 55. c.u. girls painting                 | (3')  |  |
| 56. m.s. girls raking leaves            | (4')  |  |
| 57. l.s. covered wagons                 | (7')  | A few groups make their homes in roving covered wagons, for the working  |
| 58. m.s. another wagon                  | (11') | principle of the new camp movement is that to the normally curious and enterprising youngster there is no deeper satisfaction than learning to do things |
| 59. c.u. boy chopping wood              | (3')  | by himself.  |
| 60. l.s. boys working                   | (5')  |  |
| 61. c.u. boys making chair              | (5')  |  |
| 62. c.u. boys building oven             | (4')  |  |
| 63. m.s. boys picking berries           | (4')  |  |
| 64. c.u. hands picking berries          | (3')  |  |
| 65. c.u. boy picking and eating berries | (5')  | Here, in the common delights of exploration and discovery there  |
| 66. m.s. boy placing meat in pan        | (6')  |  |

IN CAMPS - A BRIEF NOTION PICTURES
MOVEMENT AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF A NEW PRINCIPLE IN CAMP ORGANIZATION.

67. l.s. boys grooming horse (5') is little of the traditional routine of the convential summer camp.
68. c.u. same as above (6') FIRST BOY: Wash the other end, will you?
69. c.u. same as above (2') SECOND BOY: Does he ever kick?
70. c.u. girls looking at bug (10')
71. l.s. boys fishing (5')
72. c.u. boy fishing (4')
73. l.s. boys washing clothes (4) VOICE OF TIME: A new kind of summer camping - this purposeful activity of youngsters' learning by doing.
74. c.u. boy in tree (4') It is a form of the progressive education long championed for the modern schoolboy
75. c.u. boy weaving basket (4') by modern teachers and in particular
76. c.u. girls behind wagon wheel (5')
77. m.s. boys building fire (3') by famed Educator- Philosopher, Dr. John Dewey.
78. c.u. John Dewey (52') DEWEY: The average American child seldom comes in direct contact with Nature, In school he learns a few dates from books, to press a button, to step on an accelerator. But he is in danger of losing contact with primitive realities- with the world, with the space about us, with fields and rivers, with the problems of getting shelter and obtaining food that have always conditioned human life and still do so.
79. l.s. boys with covered wagon (5') VOICE OF TIME: Thus summer camping enters the
80. m.s. boys and horse (4')
81. m.s. boy and oven (5') realm of child education, and
82. c.u. boy stirring contents of pan (4') optimists predict that in this new kind of camping, tomorrow's American school-boy
83. c.u. hand testing pie (2') will enjoy
84. c.u. boy eating and laughing (8')
85. l.s. boys in swimming (3') as part of his training the exciting adventure of solving on his own hook
86. m.s. boys swinging over water (6') the questions posed by life outdoors.

TIME MARCHES ON !!!

IN CAMPS - A BRIEF NOTION PICTURE STORY OF THE U. S. CAMPING
MOVEMENT AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF A NEW PRINCIPLE IN CAMP ORGANIZATION.